THE MAGNET

St. Joseph High School

Saginaw, Michigan

Foreword

Catholic Action - - - Apostolate of the laity, in organization, developed in aid of and directly dependent on the hierarchy, in view of the triumph of Christ in individuals, in the family, and in society at large."

— Pius XI.

Joined hearts and hands we march forward 'neath the banner of Catholic Action. Upon leaving St. Joseph on this sixth day of June, we the Class of 1947 leave behind scenes of countless incidents both memorable and pleasant.

To you, fellow students and friends, we present this 1947 Magnet, as a picture of the life of "The Student and Catholic Action". May this annual remind you of the part we have been playing in "participating as the laity in the mission of the hierarchy."

The symbols and representations found on the various pages depict Catholic Action and the World and were drawn by Robert Packard. The swirls are a Roman symbol indicating Action; the Cross, Catholicism in, and around the world. The quotations found between these covers are taken from the encyclicals of the Popes or from authoritative handbooks directly explaining the words of the Holy Fathers.

If in later years, when memories shall have faded and remembrance shall have passed into oblivion, this 1947 Magnet can keep fresh the memories of friends, haunts, and happenings then, and only then, will the joy of service in preparing this volume be ours.

Call To Catholic Action

Catholic Action is calling us! Where? To what Vocation?
O God, be Thou my way and my life.

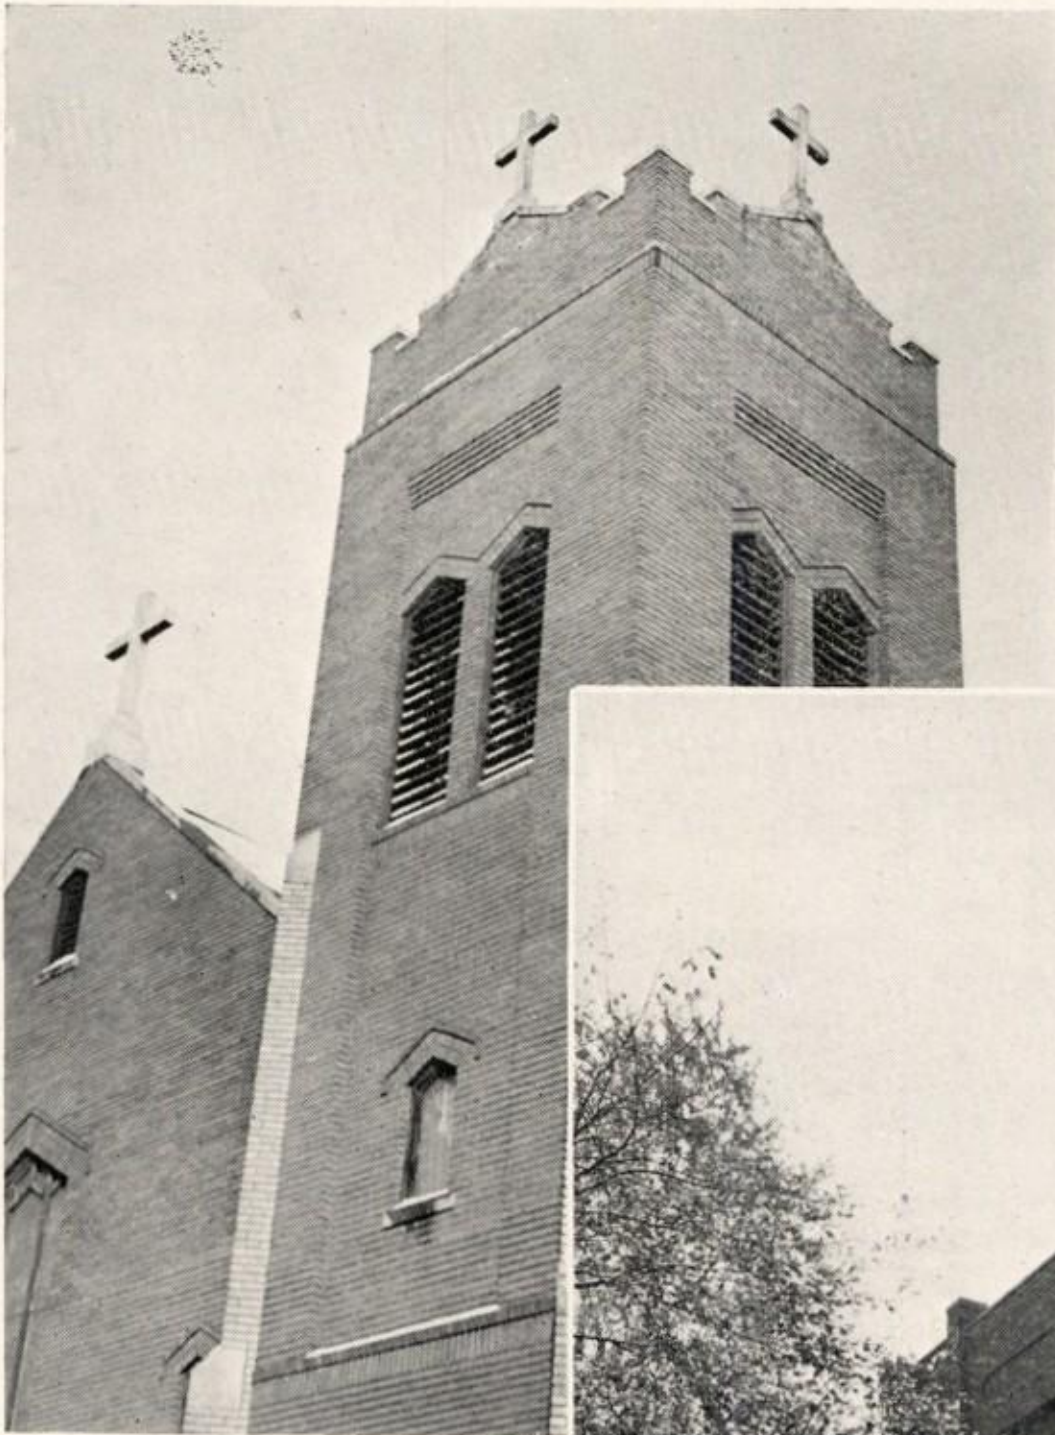

Dedication

The Senior class of 1947 hereby dedicate this year-book to you, Very Reverend Monsignor Bolton.

Your foresight and diligence in providing St. Joseph with nothing but the best, your wit and hospitality have won you the respect and friendship of every student. On leaving, the Seniors feel they are the richer for having known you.

In your performance of the duties of the parish priest you show us the intrinsic nature of Catholic Action, "helping others to help others." As a representative of the hierarchy you guide and direct our efforts to acquire the "Catholic way of doing things". It is your charitable ventures, your guidance that prove "He who heareth you, heareth Me". (Luke x. 16)

== Scenes of Our Happiest Memories ==

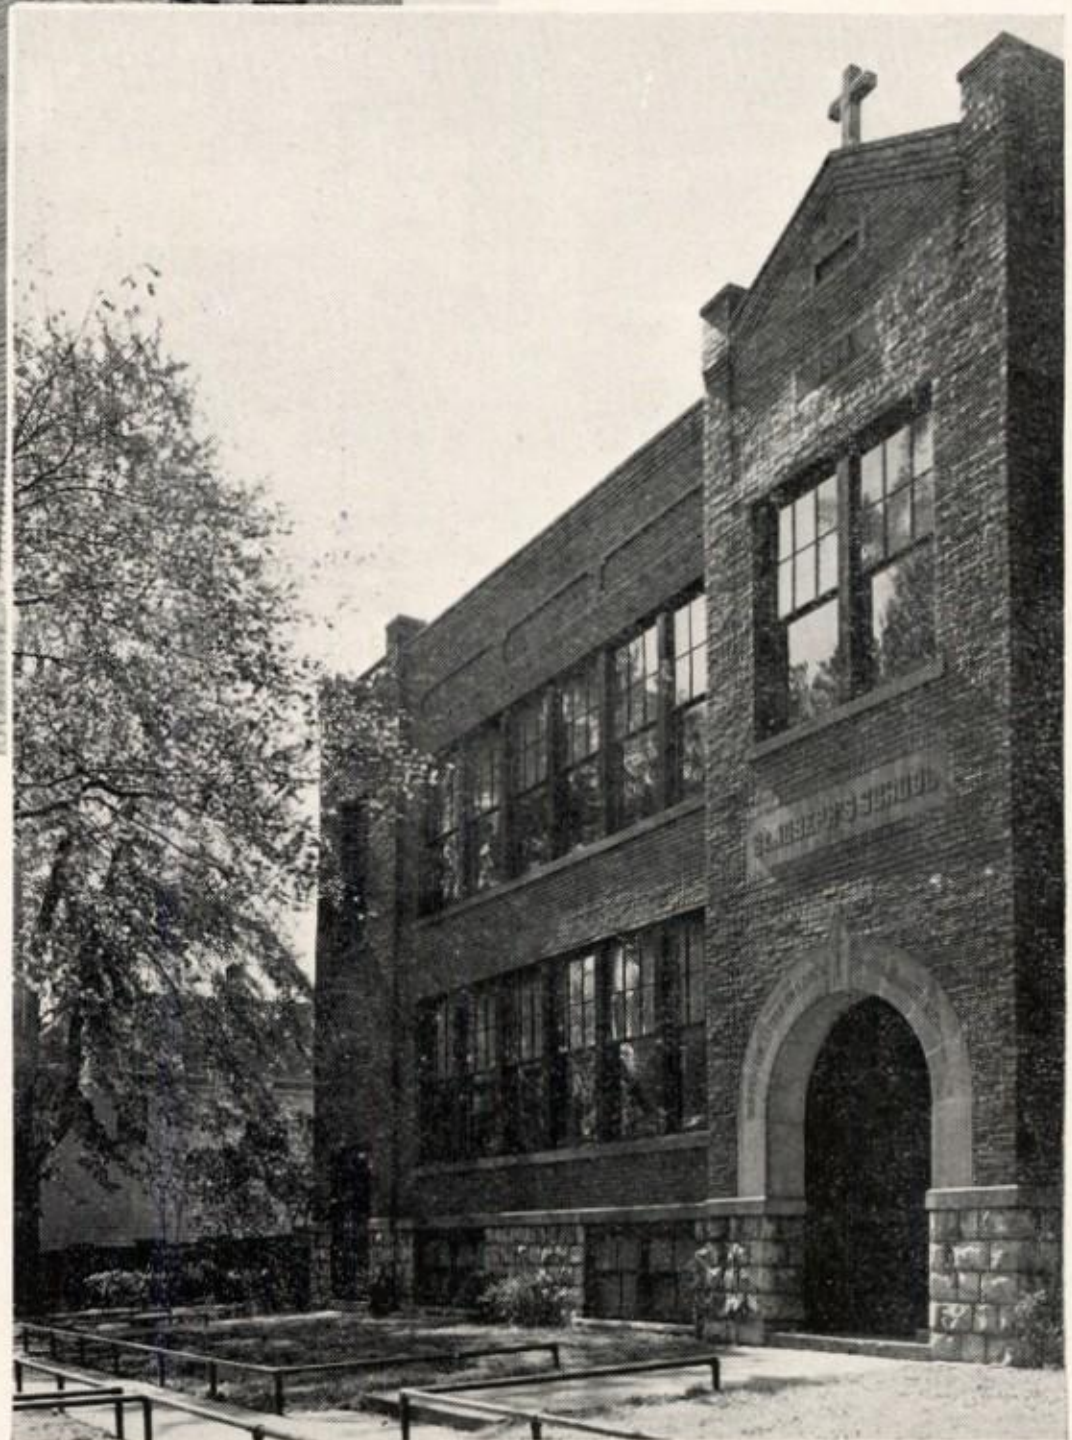

St. Joseph Church

"Our school system is the glorious monument that has been erected to the memory of those millions of self-sacrificing parents who gave unstintingly of their meager substance in many generations."

— Msgr. Luigi Civardi.

"Catholic Action, at all times and always, came as a help to the church, and the church has always favorably welcomed and blessed this help, though in accordance with the times it has expressed itself in various ways."

— Msgr. Luigi Civardi.

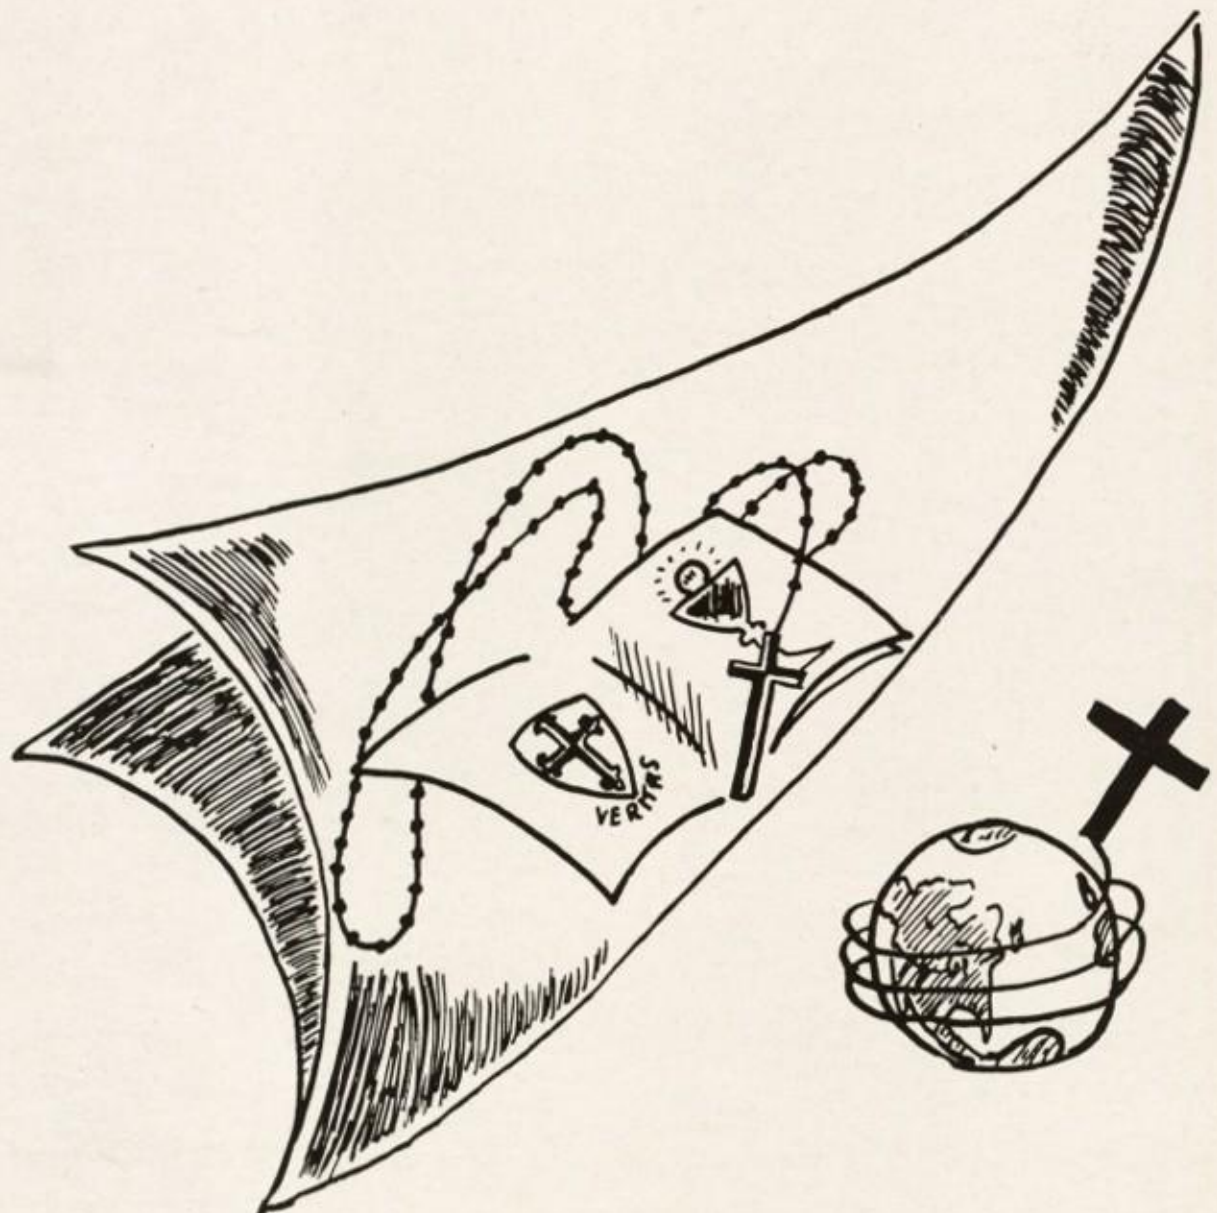

St. Joseph School

"You cannot give what you have not got and you cannot keep what you do not share. Our Father is of such a nature — like the loaves and fishes — that the more we share it with others, the more we teach it to others, the more we have left for ourselves."

— Donald L. Hessler, M.M.

ADMINISTRATION

His Holiness . . .

Pope Pius XII

"Catholic Action depends entirely of the Pope, Bishops, Priests, and Hierarchy of Jurisdiction, which alone governs the Church."

We acknowledge our indebtedness to His Holy Eminence upon whose ideals and principles our education is based. The Pope has shown us the road to follow in our "quest for happiness".

Hierarchy of Catholic Action . . .

His Excellency . . .

Most Reverend
William F. Murphy, D.D.
Bishop of Saginaw

"I live, not I but Christ lives in me."

In William Murphy, our Bishop, we find a great spiritual leader and a true Apostle of Christ. His life is devoted to the service of God and the spiritual welfare of the people, sparing no effort in the cause of a human spiritual uplift.

Very Reverend . . .

Monsignor H. J. Bolton

Pastor

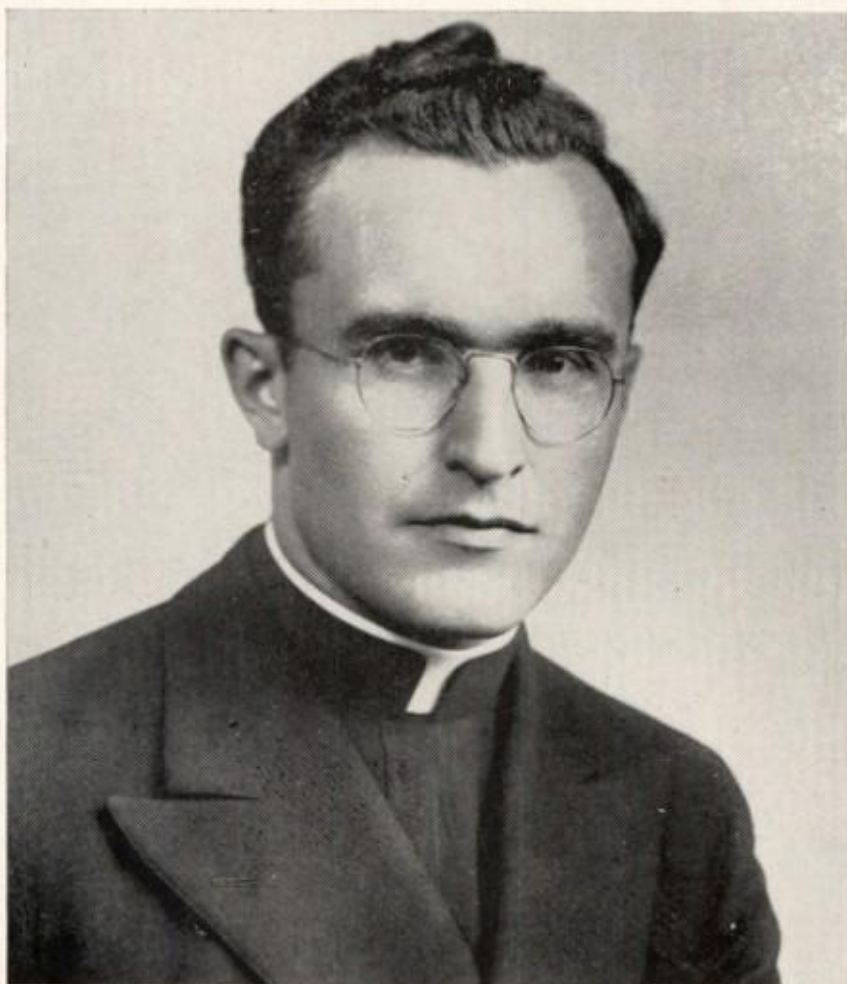

Leader and Friend

"Catholic Action, though it is of its very nature the work of the laity, can neither begin, nor prosper, nor bear any special fruit without the assiduous and diligent activity of the priest."

Monsignor Harold J. Bolton D.D.J.C.L., assumed the pastorate of St. Joseph Parish two and one-half years ago as Father Bolton. He immediately impressed his new parishioners with his keen sense of business and before long started ambitious projects for the development and maintenance of St. Joseph rectory, school, and convent.

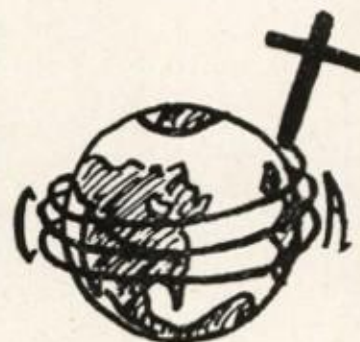

October 26, 1945 marked Father Bolton's promotion to the rank of Monsignor in recognition of his exceptional labors in the work of the Church.

Reverend Theodore LaMarre

"The Church has granted to the Parish Priests the right and the duty to exercise the works of the ministry and the apostolate, amongst which is Catholic Action."

— Msgr. Luigi Civardi.

Able Assistants . . . Christ's Guides

Reverend Robert Smith

Reverend James Hickey

Presenting Our Faculty . . .

"Teach all nations, commanding them to observe whatsoever I have commanded you."

IN MEMORIAM

1890—1947

Our Father Skowronski . . .

No person too little, no request too small. This was the attitude of our former pastor, Reverend Constantine A. Skowronski who met his Creator, Sunday, February 23, 1947.

Father Skowronski started his pastoral duties at St. Joseph in August, 1933. His first project was the payment of the huge parish debt. Under his leadership the present High School Sodality was started and rose to heights, the best in the city. He was the champion of fair play. Throughout his pastorate here he always taught the students fair play win or lose. He helped make St. Joseph High School, second to none.

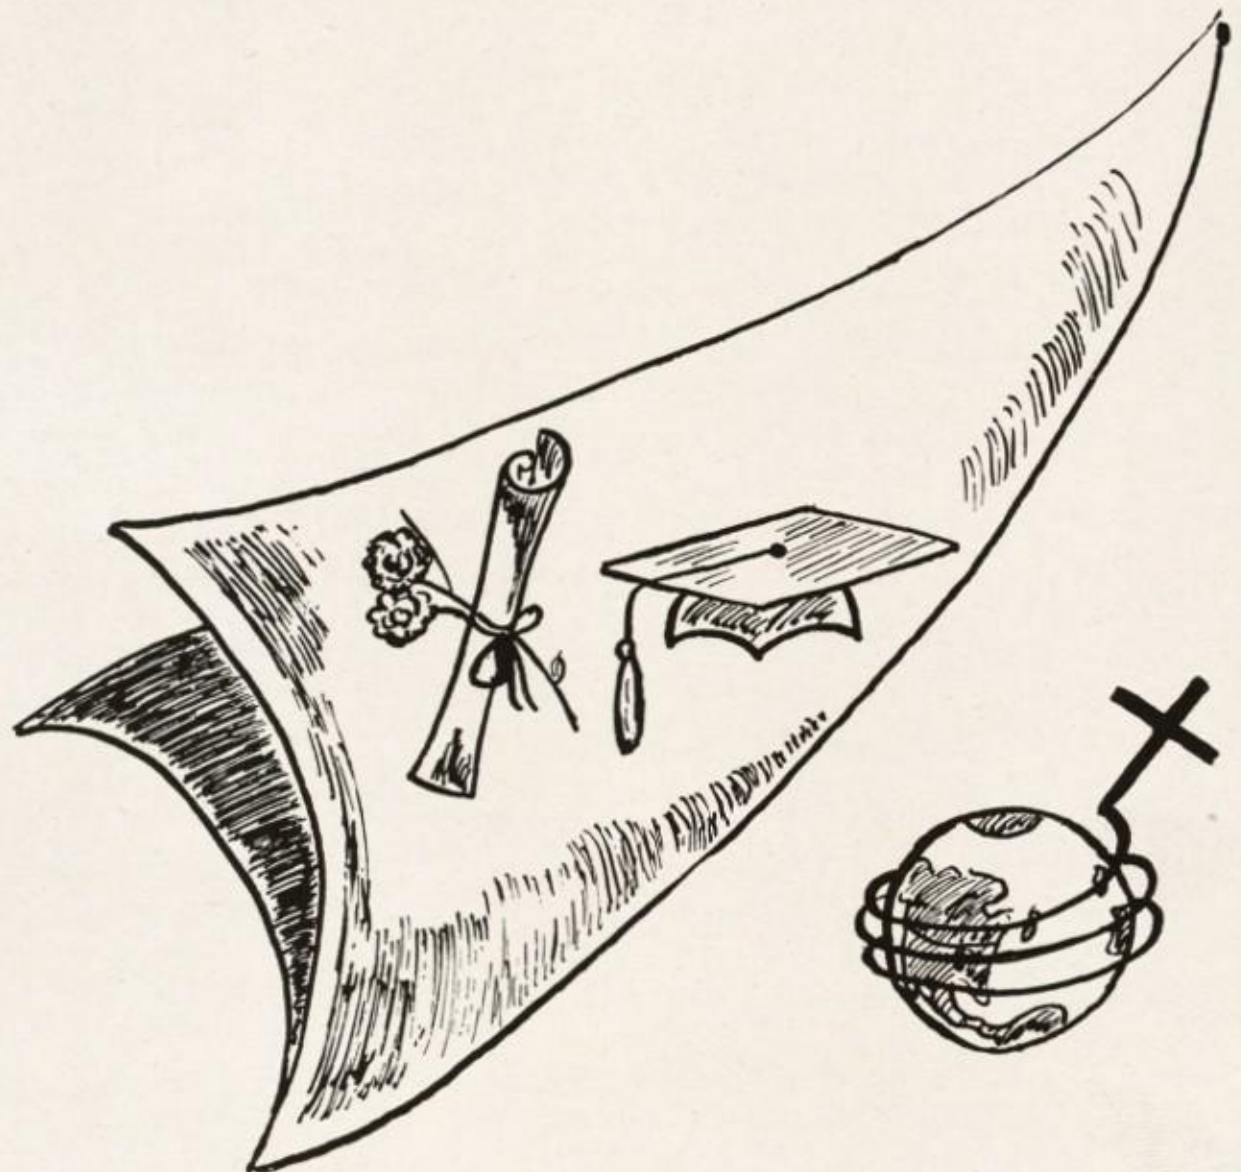

During the year of 1944, deaths of diocesan priests made it necessary for his transfer to Holy Rosary Parish. Father Skowronski's sudden death came as a thief in the night, suddenly and quietly. Although Father did not receive the Last Sacraments he said two holy Masses on the same morning and was the main speaker at a city wide K. of C. breakfast. We are sure that if he had expressed a last wish it would have been to die in the same manner.

As a final tribute to Father Skowronski, the students of St. Joseph, attended a funeral mass for him at Holy Rosary Church and offered a spiritual bouquet of ten High Masses.

"Each member of Catholic Action having received the oil of Christian doctrine, must then change it into light of truth and warmth of life, to give light to every soul. They must be a burning and shining lamp since they are to announce Christ to the World."

—Rev. John McNicholas, O.P., S.T.M.

Class Resume

As Freshmen, we the Class of '47, were gloated over and told the dire misfortunes that would befall us, especially in Initiation. In May we attended our first prom and sponsored a Get-Acquainted party, honoring prospective Josephite Freshmen.

Foolishness to supersede Wisdom, this was the right of the Sophomores. Despite this right, we applied ourselves to the work that lay before us; Biology, Geometry, Latin, Sodality activities, and plans for our coming Junior year.

Busy bees, were we in our Junior year, planning the Junior-Senior Prom in a colonial theme and preparing the Junior edition of the Magnet. Our school rings arrived and we were prepared to accept the exalted position of Seniors.

We, the dignified Seniors, planned Initiation, our Christmas play "A Christmas Carol" by Dickens, and then preparations were underway to compile our Yearbook. We attended the Junior-Senior Prom, completed plans for Class Night, and the final step before we ventured out on our own, Commencement.

Monsignor Harold Bolton, Lavonne Smith, Francis Kenel, Joanne Civello.

Class Prophecy

The great metropolis of Saginaw is busy this weekend. Folks are here from all over the country. Tonight is the grand opening of Saginaw's $70,000,000 Opera House. The interior is really ultra-ultra: Magnificent crystal chandeliers, scarlet velvet draperies, blue plush seats, and white bear skin rugs. The opera stars Miss Elizabeth Bugala, new prima donna of the New York Metropolitan Opera House. She will sing the title role of Candy in "The Keys Are In The Mailbox." Tonight the box seats are $250.

At the last opening, the opera house is filled with "tuxes", sables, and the women have all their diamonds on display. The usher calls, "No loitering in the lobby, ple-e-ease." Everyone is seated, the houselights dim, and Eileen Moriarity lifts her baton to conduct the orchestra for the overture. Miss Moriarity is the famous concert pianist, tonight she is the guest conductor. Miss Bugala steps to the front as the curtain rises on the first act of the opera. Applause, as the first act ends. "Smoking in the outer lobby only", calls the usher.

As we push our way through the crowd we see Miss Josephine Davila, who is head of the exclusive beauty salon, Mademoiselle Fifi's. She is conversing with that business lady, Josephine Cruz. Miss Cruz is now the president of a chain of Industrial Cleaners stores. They have branches from New York to Los Angeles. With them is the popular novelist, Mary Soria. Mary has just written a best seller, "How to Overcome Nervousness in 1500 Easy Lessons". It is rumored that she will write the biography of that great explorer of the Marshall Islands, Manuel Lopez. Manuel has been very active in helping the government find diamond mines in these islands.

The president of Ye Old Broken Hearts Mausoleum is here to see the grand opening of this opera starring her former partner, Elizabeth Bugala. Betty Nowak states to all her prospective clients that at the Mausoleum they will find solace. Since all the boarders have paid the supreme sacrifice — lost their man — THE OLD MAIDS.

The housewife's pride and joy, Mike Wachowicz, just put in an appearance. Mike is the chief bread baker of his bakery. "Wachowicz bread is better bread" is his motto.

Those great comedians of stage, screen, and radio, Joe "Pepsodent" Dambro, and Russell "903" Jurek are keeping the crowd laughing with their crazy antics.

Say, isn't that the Chief Electrical Engineer of the Western Electric Company, Bill McMall. He is talking to that renowned animal hunter, Ed Gabrish.

The new sensational singer, Jeanne Falco, just entered the lobby on the arm of Broadway producer, Hinkel Van Druat. It is said that Jeanne has the leading role in his new musicale, "Sally of the Slippery Slipper."

The charming little lady talking to the usher is Miss Dolores Dreffs, owner of the Lotus Shoppe. It is that luxurious soda fountain on 47th and Broadway. Dolores resigned from Parkers to enter business for herself.

There is that great All-American Fullback of Notre Dame, Don Schabel, talking to those grocery store magnates, Joe Barone and Peter Favara. Pete and Joe are of Beverly Hills, California.

The gentlemen in tails, with the diamond topped cane, is that well-known agriculturist, Ray Boensch. Ray invented a machine that plows, sows seeds, fertilizes, hoes, and picks the crops. For his invention he received $40,000,000.

The grocery magnates are really out tonight, there's Sam Passariello, President of the Grocers Association. Sam is now happily married and is living in Florida.

Roy Dunn is happily married and has his own Electric Company. States Mr. Dunn, "The opera affords relaxation for the tired business executive."

"An apple for the teacher". That is what the pupils of Professor of Mathematics, Mary Ellen Harrigan say. Mary Ellen is on the faculty of Central Michigan College. She is chatting with Doctor Frank Kenel, noted surgeon. Doctor Kenel recently performed the first operation of the new disease, Hickle Naun Popiscis.

Tonight is a grand opening for Tom Looby, now director of Boys Town, for Doctor Norman Myckowiak, his dentist, just sent him his new gold trimmed uppers.

The gal in the mink coat is Socialite Rita Ezop, of Boston's Beacon Hill. Miss Ezop was a 1947 graduate of St. Joseph School and is a friend of Miss Bugala's.

My picture in Life Magazine. Smile, for here is Life's ace photographer, Pat Walkowski, talking to that great piano accordion virtuoso, Wanda Neltett.

The senator from Michigan "Eloquent Dick" Webber is smoking his old pipe over there by the door. He is talking to an old schoolchum, Bob Packard. Bob is the well-known globe trotting artist. He just came back from Canada, where he did some drawings for Holiday Magazine.

Lois Rogalski is now chief gown designer of the New Rooter Movie Studio. She designed those beautiful gowns worn by starlet, Jo Kane, in the movie "Ball and Chain."

Lavonne Smith now operates the largest canine farms in the Western Hemisphere and her thoroughbreds are famous the world round. Lavonne had a great fear of dogs, but conquered it by surrounding herself with them.

Two of the most prominent business women in the United States are here to see the opera. Joan Dabmer and Theresa Naples now are the heads of Comptometer Schools in America. It is hinted that they will go to Europe and open Comptometer Schools.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Joanne Civello, former New York attorney, is visiting with Miss Ruth Bushroe. Miss Bushroe had such a craving for food that she finally went into the restaurant business. She owns the Saldorf-Wastoria Hotel in Timbuktoo.

As the people come out of the opera house, we can hear their acclaims over Miss Bugala's singing.

"Victory is the supreme aim of mobilized army; but to conquer one must begin with the drilling and equipment of the troops and the providing of munitions."

... We Look for Guidance

With the strains of "O Mary, we crown thee with blossoms today" on their lips the Sodalists paid final tribute to Mary on May 2 when Prefect Elizabeth Bugala crowned the Heavenly Queen with a floral garland. Her attendants were: Lavonne Smith, Vice-Prefect; Dolores Dreffs, Secretary; Marie Pietrzak, Helen Reyes and Mary Kathryn MacDonald.

In observance of October the month of the Holy Rosary, the students participated in the beautiful candle-light ceremony of the animated rosary.

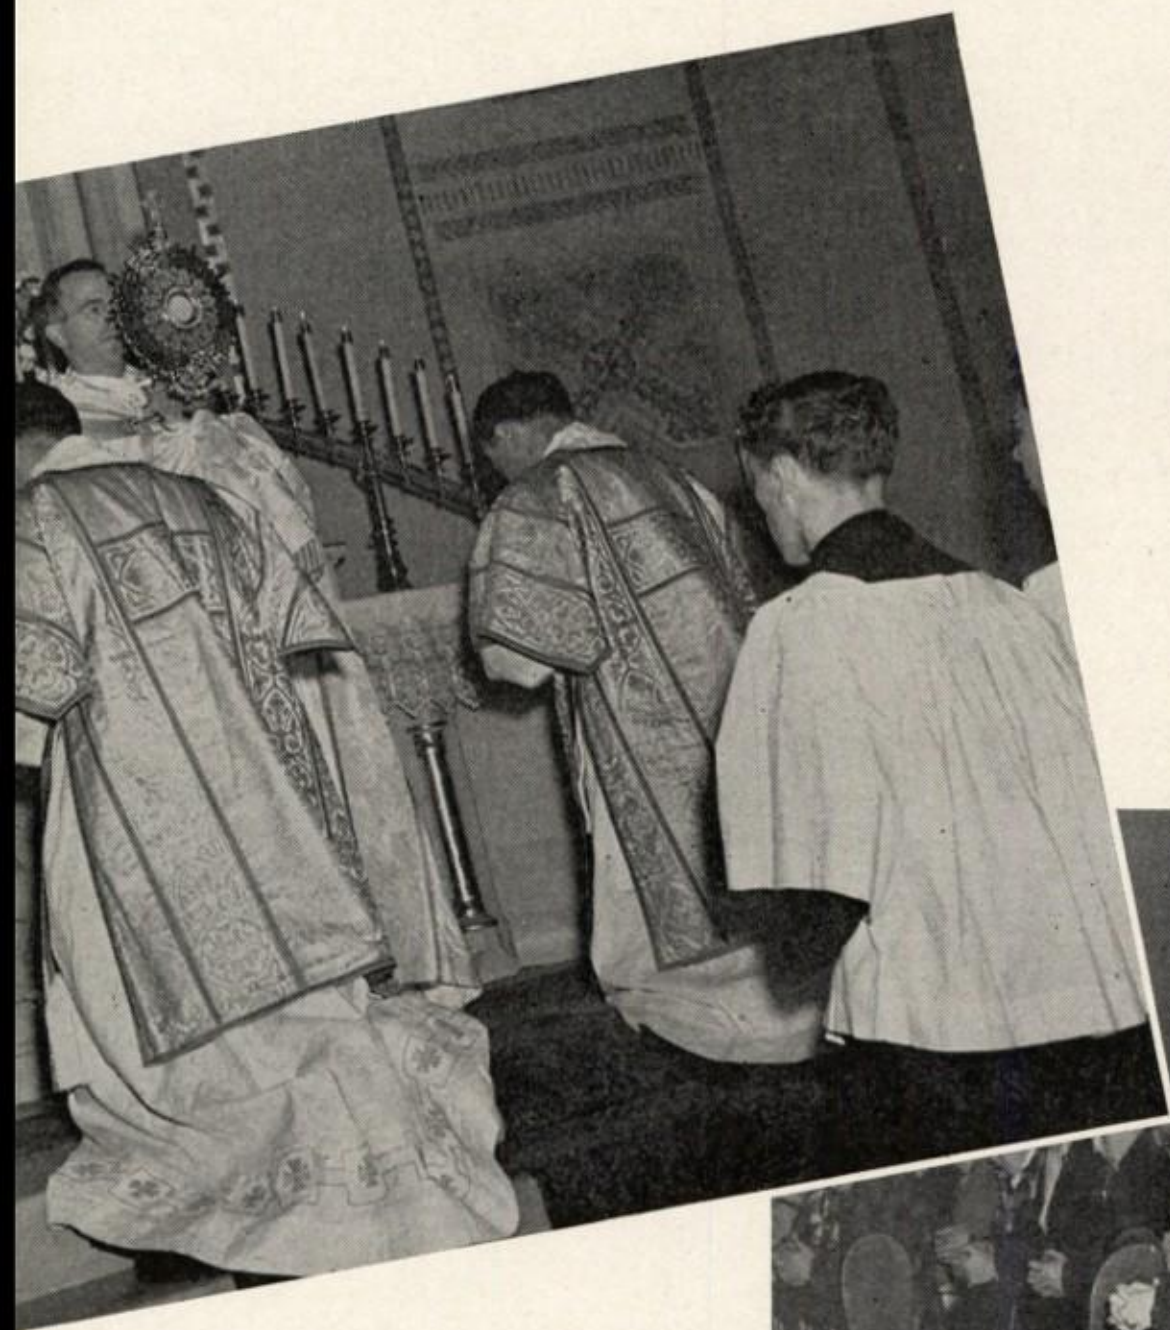

The feast of the Immaculate Conception, December 8, was the occasion of the reception of seventy candidates into the ranks of the "Army of Youth."

Spotlighted in the list of Committee activities were the Bishop's War Relief Campaign, Christmas Caroling, Vocation Week March 10-16, and catechetical work with the Saturday religion classes.

Faculty moderator of the Sodality is Sister M. Aquilina.

With mid-semester exams, the Seniors' last, in the realm of past history, the student body turned their minds to the annual three day retreat, January 29, 30, 31, under the direction of Reverend Ernest F. Miller, Left to Right: Dolores Dreffs, Secretary; Elizabeth Bu greatest anticipations and will be long remembered by the retreatants of 1947. "Will you live in God's yard or the World's", was the enticing theme woven throughout the conferences.

A most untimely snow storm on the second day of the retreat hindered many students' attending, but the concluding day found a majority of brave Josephites weathering the storm to close fittingly their most important spiritual exercise.

Student Council

Ten years of achievement was celebrated at a Special Birthday Party in honor of the Student Council and its members on January 23. This day was dedicated to the Student Council and "Student Council Day" will hereafter be an annual affair. To climax the event, the "Snow Shuffle" was attended by the high school students and the alumni. The dance committee included President, Joan Dahmer; Vice-President, Theresa Naples; Secretary, Colleen O'Brien; Treasurer, Olympia Surian. Sister M. DeLellis is supervisor of this organization.

The major project sponsored by the Student Council, Courtesy Week, February 9-14, was highlighted by two motion pictures, "Charm and Personality Plus Character" and "Junior Prom".

Library Club . . .

Scholars of St. Joseph high school are fortunate in having available so complete and extensive a library under such reliable supervision. Every period finds busy Josephites slipping in and out or earnestly "digging away" on last minute Chemistry reports or prolonged English themes in this quiet retreat, stocked with current periodicals and reference material. Or maybe it is a bit of wholesome, sensation-free fiction that is wanted. A satisfying selection is on hand, and you would not mind having your mom read any one of them.

The Library Club under the experienced guidance of Sister M. Rosella and the leadership of Kathleen Laundra has maintained this high standard through personal effort and interest. The competent staff of librarians includes Vice-President, Joyce Pickelman; Secretary, Donna Packard; Treasurer, Josephine Escalera; and Helen Reyes, Marie Pietrzak, Mary Kathryn MacDonald, Dolores Soltysiak, Vera Smith, Susan Kushion, Beatrice Vargas, Nancy Kennedy, Patricia Eychas, and Anna Borello.

Catholic Book Week and Catholic Press Month employing the theme "Pillars of Freedom — Christian Books" were projects which afforded the girls practical experience in library management and helped encourage a press-minded spirit among the students.

Glee Club

The Glee Club, in its third year of existence, comprising 46 Junior and Senior voices, made extraordinary progress under the direction of Sister M. Susanna and Mr. Anthony J. Brink. Among the featured performances were the choice selection of Christmas Carols offered for the School's Christmas program and at Midnight Mass, and the First Word, Third Word, and Adoramus Te Christe from the "Seven Last Words" by Theodore Dubois rendered with the Passion Play March 29 and 30.

At the December P.T.O. meeting Mr. Brink introduced Community-singing of the old favorite "rounds" which found much favor with young and old alike. Monsignor Bolton's feast day March 19 afforded an opportunity for novel numbers, consisting of My Wild Irish Rose, Italian Street Song, Donkey Serenade, and a special song written and dedicated to Monsignor.

Christmas Play

Much enjoyment was derived by both cast and audience, when the Seniors staged Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" December 19 at St. Joseph auditorium under the direction of Mr. Anthony J. Brink. Peter Favara as Scrooge, Tom Looby as Crachit, Joanne Civello as first spirit, and Samuel Passariello as second spirit drew the leading roles, with the entire class tackling supporting parts and committee jobs.

"If one can honestly say that Christ and Him crucified is the central thought of his daily life, he is fortunate."

— William J. Smith, S.J.

Passion Play

Under the direction of Mr. Anthony Brink the Passion Play "The Upper Room" by Msgr. Hugh Benson, presented March 29-30 by an all-high school cast, was an avowed success. The cast included Peter Favara in the role of Judas, Olympia Surian as Samuel, a twelve year old boy, Wanda Nellett as Mary, Achaz, Raphael Michalski, Mary Magdalen, Ruth Bushroe, Joseph of Arimathaea, Louis Vescio, John, Chester Pawlik, Peter, Thomas Laundra, Christus, Ralph Brandi, Apostles, Frank Gonzales, Harold Preuter, Gerald Higgins, Leonard Boensch, Leo Casarez, Charles Picklemann, Dale Sage, Jack Wade, Manuel Hidalgo, the Doctor, Anthony Gembroski, the Voice, Richard Bricault.

The Glee Club, also under the direction of Mr. Brink and Sister M. Susanna, gave interpretations of The First Word, The Third Word, Adoramus Te Christe from "The Seven Last Words" by Theodore Dubois. Solo parts were rendered by Elizabeth Bugala and Mary Ellen Harrigan. Opening the performance was a tableau "The Last Supper".

On the Production Staff were: Costumes, Kathleen Laundra, Susan Kushion, Patricia Federico, Rose Marie Gaber; Properties, Marie Pietrzak, Joan Galonska, Anna Borrello, Joyce Pickelmann; Make-up, Colleen O'Brien, Helen Reyes, Joan Jozwiak; Sound, John Sopcak, Franklin Ezop; Lights, Robert Packard, Russell Bostwick; Construction Crew, Robert Packard, Richard Webber, Jack Wade, Harold Preuter, Julian Soria.

MAGNET AND YEAR BOOK

Co-editors, associates and staff; deadlines, copy, and headlines; hours of work and re-write; the combination has produced well-rounded, newsy, and enjoyable issues of the Magnet. The 1946-47 Magnets were diligently compiled by the co-editors, Mary Ellen Harrigan and Roy Dunn ably assisted by Patricia Walkowski and Richard Webber. Co-editors were elected again after one year during which the journalistic reigns were held by the editor-in-chief.

Reproducing between the red and white covers of this annual the life of the Josephites has been the pleasurable task of the yearbook staff.

Under the co-editorship of Robert Packard and Mary Ellen Harrigan and their assistants, Norman Myckowiak and Lavonne Smith, the staff aims to foster an apostolic spirit among the readers of this annual through the theme "Catholic Action and the Student."

The year-long project has come to completion, we hope you like it!

Football

St. Joseph finished in fifth place in the Valley Parochial Football League, sporting a record of 2 wins, 1 tie and 3 losses.

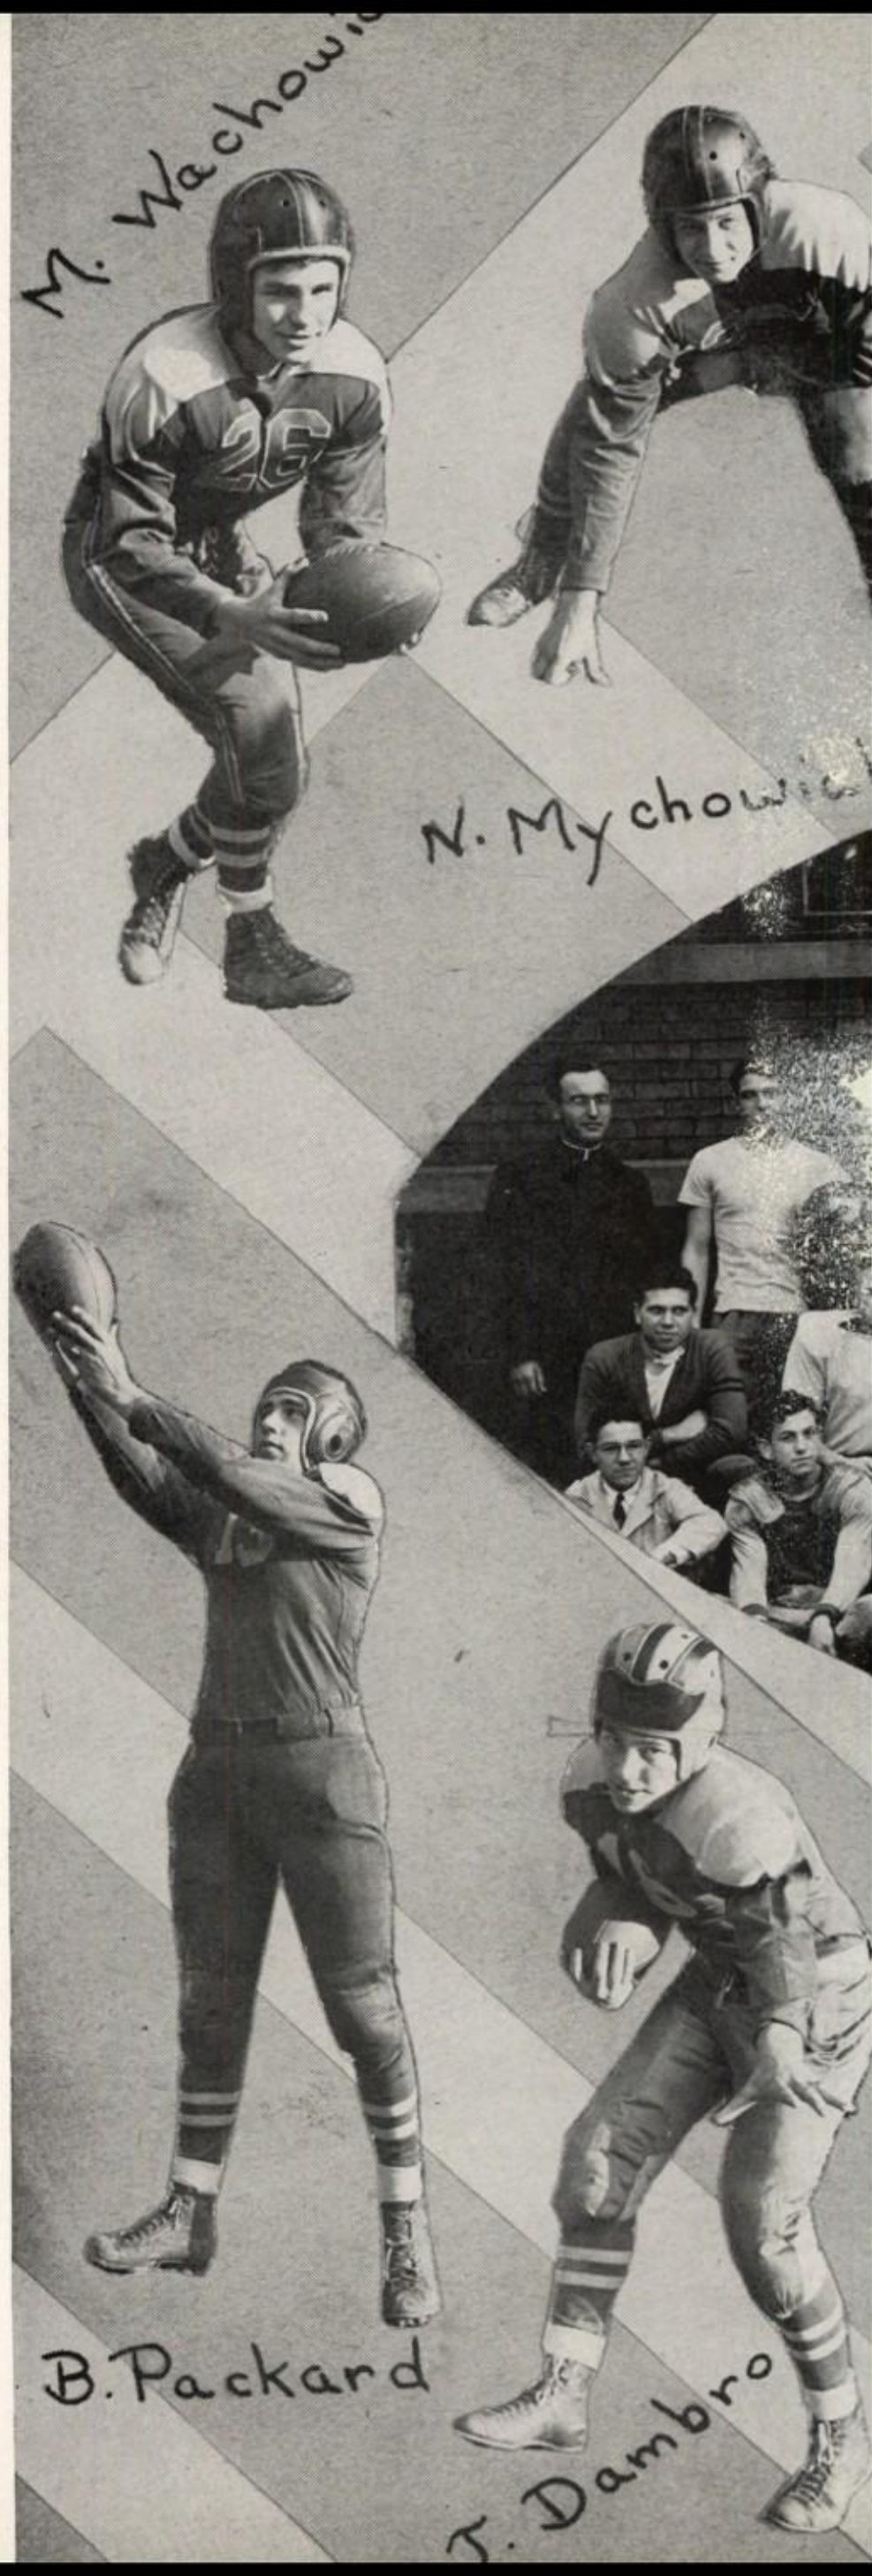

The Buccaneers opened the season with a bang scoring a 13-0 victory with St. Mary, Bay City. Then before an overflow crowd at Forbes field, St. Joseph was upset by SS. Peter and Paul Midgets. Trailing 7-6 with only 2 minutes to play, the Bucs roared down-field, only to be stopped 1 yard from a touchdown, by the final whistle. The Buccaneers rebounded to top the Irish of St. James, Bay City, by the tune of 13-0. St. Joseph was never in trouble, and failed to roll up a big score, because of repeated fumbles. On October 20, the boys from the First Ward were thoroughly thumped, 27-0 by their west side rival, St. Andrew. The Buccaneers were decidedly off form, and the Orangejackets took advantage of every break. The St. Joseph Homecoming game was spoiled by an invading Bay City St. Joseph eleven and a driving rain. The league Champion Yellowjackets gained their seventh straight triumph in repelling a determined Buccaneer team, 18-0. St. Joseph, stalwarts of the grid-iron, came from behind to tie a highly favored St. Mary Saginaw team 12-12. The Buccaneers played their best game of the year leaving the crowd spell-bound with a last minute passing attack that tied the score.

Co-Captain Bob Packard was voted the most valuable player by his teammates. Guard Don Schabel and Co-Captain Roy Dunn were placed on the All Valley Team. Honorable mention went to Joe Barone, Norm Myckowiak and Johnny Passariello.

Basketball

St. John 31 — St. Joseph 28

In the opening game of the season the Bucs were beaten by the fast-breaking, sharp shooting Big Reds from Essexville. Roy Dunn paced St. Joe with eleven points.

St. Andrew 42 — St. Joseph 14

The Bucs were no match for the well balanced Yellow Jackets. St. Andrew stepped into 7-0 first quarter lead and were never headed.

SS. Peter-Paul 42 — St. Joseph 16

Inability to hit from the floor plus the fact that Art McColgan had a good night for SS. Peter-Paul spelled defeat for St. Joseph.

Saginaw St. Mary 39 — St. Joseph 34

This was the Bucs best showing to date, they jumped into 13-5 lead at the end of the first quarter, but trailed at the half 19-18. The score was tied at the end of the third quarter 28-28. John Passariello paced the score with 14 points.

Bay City St. James 27 — St. Joseph 22

The Bucs led at the first quarter mark 8-5 but were behind most of the final three periods. Passariello once led St. Joe scoring with 10 points.

St. Joseph 44 — Bay City St. Joseph 37

St. Joe displayed its best offense of the year as they beat their Bay City namesake. Roy Dunn and Al Soto with 16 and 10 points apiece were the individual stars.

St. Joseph 31 — Bay City St. Mary 25

Paced by Roy Dunn's 17 points the Bucs overcame a 17-7 half time deficit to win going away.

St. Andrew 34 — St. Joseph 31

With Al Soto looping in 14 points, the Bucs almost upset the favored Yellowjackets. St. Joe tired in the fourth quarter and allowed St. Andrew to pile up the necessary points.

Saginaw St. Mary 38 — St. Joseph 33

The Bucs led at the half 18-16, then fell apart. Dunn as the only man hit consistently with 16 points.

SS. Peter-Paul 44 — St. Joseph 31

With Art McColgan and Leo Boyd snagging 30 points between them the Midgets easily defeated St. Joe in their second meeting of the year.

St. Joseph 50 — Arthur Hill Trade 24

All the Bucs were hot in this contest as the score indicates.

St. Joseph 56 — Pontiac St. Frederick 55

This was the year's thriller. The Bucs had a 12 point lead with four minutes to go but the up-staters came back to pare the lead to one point at the finish.

St. Joseph 56 — Visitation Detroit 37

The Bucs lost the first encounter at Detroit but came back to win easily at home 56-37. Dunn hit a season high score with 22 points in the second game.

SS. Peter-Paul 46 — St. Joseph 28

Once again, it was that MAN, Art McColgan, who almost single handedly beat the Bucs. Big Art hooked in 21 points, as many as the whole St. Joe team could corner.

They Coached The Bucs . . .

Mr. J. Stelter

Mr. D. Karaba

During the last two years as athletic director, Father LaMarre has worked hard to improve conditions. Acquiring the new athletic field, remodeling the locker room, and installing steel lockers, were Father's chief accomplishments. Father has also started a league among the boys of the city who could not make the varsity teams. Father is hard driving and is ever working for the good of our school.

JOE STELTER

Coach Joe Stelter's three years at St. Joseph have given him a reputation as a coach of exceptional ability and a man of complete personal integrity. In Coach Stelter's first two years at St. Joseph he was assistant coach to Russell (Doc) Hatch. After "Doc" took a leave of absence, Joe took over head coaching reigns. Joe is also the baseball coach having the same ability as in football.

DOMINIC KARABA

Coach Dominic Karaba, '40, an alumnus of St. Joseph held the reigns as Basketball Coach. After graduation Dominic was inducted into the army. After serving three years he returned to take over the reigns vacated by Coach Hatch. Dominic employed the man to man defense and used both fast break and set play attack. Coach Dominic is well liked by the players and is bound to succeed.
